CLUB SAFESPORT REPRESENTATIVE---JUNIOR CLUBS ONLY

USA Volleyball and the Delta Region are committed to be leaders in providing safe and fun environments for youth, adults, officials, spectators and event staff. The safety of its participants on and off the court is of paramount importance to USA Volleyball and the Delta Region. USA Volleyball and the Delta Region considers it a part of our responsibility to provide educational materials and resources for our clubs, coaches, parents and athletes. USA Volleyball and the Delta Region have a ZERO TOLERANCE for abuse and misconduct.

Each Club should designate a Club SafeSport Representative (this may be the Club Director). The SafeSport Representative should be a current member of the Delta Region. All Club SafeSport Representatives must have successfully completed Delta Region’s background screening requirements and SafeSport training. The Club SafeSport Representative should help the club implement a SafeSport Program, which includes setting and implementing SafeSport policies and procedures. The Club SafeSport representative will be the contact point for additional information and training for the club coming from USA Volleyball or the Delta Region. In some instances, a victim or complainant may feel more comfortable reporting abuse or misconduct to the Club SafeSport Representative. Any reports to a Club SafeSport Representative shall be forwarded to USA Volleyball or the Delta Region. Depending on the circumstances, USA Volleyball or the Delta Region may refer a report to the Club SafeSport Representative for initial action, investigation and/or discipline.
