Bill of Rights for Parents when joining a club:

I have the right to:

- be treated with dignity and respect
- share in the leadership and decision making of your athlete
- approach the leadership of the club organization with which you are involved
- cheer for your child in a positive manner
- verify your coaches/team qualifications
- ask questions and receive answers
- ensure that the adults involved with your child are positive role models
- talk to parents, other players and/or other clubs
- have my child tryout without discrimination
- request a clear disclosure of financial obligations
- have a written clubs statement of philosophy
- be informed about my child's role on the team
- have my child tryout out for more than one club and be allowed time to make a decision
- know of the time, travel and financial commitment of my involvement with the club/team.
- know how many spots are available before tryouts begin
- remove my child from an event/practice that I feel is unsafe for my child to continue, without repercussions
- know that all club affiliated staff are members of the Delta Region, have passed a background screening and have been certified by USA Volleyball's SafeSport program.
- ask your club director if they adhere to all State and Federal business requirements and laws
